

Kevin Bushey Bio

Kevin is a Northern Maine native who grew up during the turbulent 60s and 70s. After graduating from the University of Maine in 1977, he spent 5 years on active duty in the U.S. Army, doing tours in LA and Germany. He left active duty and served as a reserve officer another 3 years before transferring to the U.S. Air Force. His military career spanned 29+ years including 17 years on active duty. In his last assignment, he served as the senior reserve component advisor to the Secretary of the Air Force. He retired at the rank of Colonel in 2006.

Kevin was raised Roman Catholic and left the church shortly after 2001. In his search for truth, he returned to God's word and increased his research by reading and studying such researchers as Dr. Michael Lake, Dr. Michael Heiser, Steve Quayle, LA Marzulli, Derek Gilbert, Tom Horne, Josh Peck, David Hamp, and many more.

Kevin is affiliated with Omega Kingdom Ministry-Indiana and Pass the Salt Ministry-Ohio and participates in a county wide ekklesia that is active in praying, activism, fellowship and teaching others on leaving the traditional church system and becoming home congregations.

Kevin completed masters degrees from Embry Riddle Aeronautical, George Mason, and the Air War College. Kevin and his spouse, Mary, raised two girls and have been married over 39 years.
